ULTIMATE COCKTAIL: Jefferson's Reserve Old Fashioned

2oz Jefferson's Reserve 100 Proof
½ tsp sugar
2 to 3 dashes of Angostura bitters
1 tsp water
1 sliced orange peel

Steps: Add sugar and bitters to a 9oz rocks (tumbler) glass, then add the water and stir until sugar is dissolved. Fill the glass with large ice cubes, add the Jefferson's Reserve, and gently stir to combine. Twist the orange peel over the glass and drop it in. Add a cherry if desired.

DESCRIPTION:

The Jefferson's brand was first released in 1997 by Trey Zoeller. Trey's history in Bourbon-making dates back over 8 generations. Jefferson's Bourbon Whiskey is known for thinking outside the box when it comes to aging techniques. Most famously known for aging bourbon at sea. They are firm believers that when the barrels are at sea, the wave action will affect the bourbon's development.

TASTING NOTES:

Color: Medium dark amber color with a note of ruby red

Aromas: Very aromatic, layers of brown sugar, and molasses, with a note of apple mash

Palate: Full-bodied with layers of cinnamon, toffee, and a touch of citrus

Finish: Balanced and very long finish, showcasing hints of sweet tobacco, cedar, and fresh cut leather

DESCRIPTION:

Rooted in innovation, quality, craftsmanship, and integrity, Old Elk Distillery in Fort Collins, CO, was founded in 2013. Founder Curt Richardson desired to create a distinctive portfolio of whiskeys that embodied his passion for whiskey, and he succeeded. In 2016, Greg Metze joined the team as Master Distiller, bringing his 40 years of experience in the whiskey industry to Old Elk.

TASTING NOTES:

- Color: Dark amber with a ruby highlight around the rim
- Aromas: Spiced with a note of brown sugar, vanilla, and dried fruits
- Palate: Full-bodied and quite lively, with hints of toasted cinnamon, and nutmeg with a slight touch of maple
- Finish: Very well balanced with a great texture, a slight caramel flavor lingers in the backend
