DESCRIPTION:

Jos. A. Magnus & Co. Distillery was re-established in 2015, but the legacy of Joseph Magnus Bourbon dates back to the 1890s. After Magnus' great-grandson rediscovered an old bottle of his ancestor's whiskey amongst family heirlooms, the idea was hatched to revive the art of finished bourbon. Samples were taken from that 122-year-old bottle and the liquid was reverse-engineered. Joseph Magnus Bourbon is comprised of 12-year-old bourbon from MGP in Indiana and triple-cask finished over several months in Oloroso Sherry, Pedro Ximénez Sherry, and Cognac casks.

TASTING NOTES:

Color: Deep, rich, and concentrated amber color
Aromas: Bright citrus aromas with hints of brown sugar and cocoa powder
Palate: Rich and concentrated, well-balanced with citrus, stone fruits, and caramel
Finish: Warm and lingering finish that is slightly sweet
