DESCRIPTION:

Drawing on years of distilling expertise, Bardstown Bourbon Co. employs state-of-the-art equipment and local ingredients to create exceptional spirits. Under the guidance of former Maker's Mark Master Distiller Steve Nally, the Nelson County distillery, nestled in a cornfield on 100 acres, produces modern American whiskeys, including collaborations with Louisville's Copper & Kings. Established in 2014 on the Bardstown Bourbon Trail, the distillery has expanded, introducing the high-end restaurant Bottle & Bond Kitchen and Bar to enhance the visitor experience.

TASTING NOTES:

Color: Deep, rich, and very concentrated amber with a bright ruby rim

Aromas: Nougat, marzipan, aged oak, barrel char, rye spice, and leather

Palate: Ripe cherry, white flower, dill, and cinnamon

Finish: Robust rye spice, subtly dried oak, Mexican chocolate, leather, & lingering warmth

DESCRIPTION:

Maighstir Edition is crafted by the skilled hands of Kentucky Owl Master Blender John Rhea and Scotch Whisky Master Blender Maureen Robinson. The very name, resonating with Gaelic grace, speaks of excellence—a legacy rooted by the founder of Kentucky Owl, Charles Mortimer Dedman in 1879. Through the turbulent era of prohibition and a century's passage, the distillery resurfaced, breathing life into its rich history. Today, Kentucky Owl stands proud, embarking on a narrative of heritage and innovation, inviting you to savor the essence of Maighstir—a masterpiece in the making. Immerse yourself in the legacy, elevate your whiskey experience, and let Maighstir unfold its chapters of flavor and history in each sip.

TASTING NOTES:

- Color: Rich amber hue, reminiscent of polished mahogany, inviting and warm
- Aromas: Sweet malted barley and a touch of caramel and vanilla
- Palate: Rye spiciness transitions to lingering orange and grapefruit essence
- Finish: Caramel and vanilla reappear and trail away with a long soft pleasant finish
