DESCRIPTION:

Welcome to Eidson Wines, where Weston Eidson, the maestro behind the renowned Silver Ghost label, unveils his latest masterpiece - the 2021 Montagu Pinot Noir. Sourced from the virtually unattainable plot in Sonoma's Fort Ross-Seaview, a region Wine Spectator calls "Pinot's Magical Kingdom," this small-production gem showcases the mastery of Eidson. With mentors like Russell Bevan and Jason Moore, Eidson's Montagu label crafts extremely limited wines, exemplified by the 360 cases of this release, reflecting the unique terroir of Fort Ross-Seaview. Cheers to low-yield intensity and small-berry complexity in every sip.

TASTING NOTES:

From the Sonoma Coast, this Pinot Noir shows beautiful aromatics while juicy dark red fruit, Bing cherry, raspberry, cola, and earthy undertones of pine straw and spice fill out the palate. The silky texture from the polished tannins leads to an expansive mid-palate and a lingering bright finish.
