DESCRIPTION:

For over 50 years Dry Creek Winery has been producing some of the very best wines to come from the Dry Creek Valley and Sonoma County. The winery is still family-owned and run by second-generation Kim Stare-Wallace. Dry Creek is firmly committed to a “No Compromises” philosophy, producing appellation-focused, terroir-driven varietal-defining wines. Dry Creek Winery farms 185 acres, and 100% of their vineyards are certified sustainable.

TASTING NOTES:

“At first swirl, notes of black currant, blackberry, and cranberry come forward, followed by deeper aromatics of clove and orange zest. Additional airing reveals nuances of cardamom and mocha. On the palate, elegant flavors of boysenberry and plum mingle with complex notes of cinnamon, toasty cedar, and bay leaf. The refined tannins are well-integrated, providing a rich and luxurious mouthfeel with a long, lingering finish.”

DESCRIPTION:

Coup de Foudre in English translates to “lightning strikes” or when something unforgettable occurs that you want to capture forever. The meaning behind the Coup de Foudre label finds inspiration from when John Schwartz (owner) met his eventual wife in France. For the past 30 years, John and his wife have had the great fortune to work with wine, savor it, and witness its impact on consumers as they commemorate special times in their lives with wine, hence Coupe de Foudre.

TASTING NOTES:

Les Bouquinistes, a Napa Valley field blend, is one of the most intriguing wines within the Coup de Foudre family of wines. Dark, youthful color, almost opaque. The nose offers ripe crushed berry notes with hints of tart pomegranate and sweet floral spice. The palate is full of energy, showcasing layers of red and black fruit flavors with the right amount of tannins and acidity. This is a gorgeous wine.

Brothers John and Steve Dragonette and close friend Brandon Sparks-Gillis founded Dragonette Cellars in 2005 after having worked together at a renowned wine shop in Los Angeles. Their shared passion for great wine brought them to wild, windy, and remote northern Santa Barbara County where they spent the next several years seeking out extraordinary, cool-climate vineyards and dedicating themselves to careful, patient, minimalist winemaking.

TASTING NOTES:

“From a great terroir on the western side of the Sta. Rita Hills, the 2021 Pinot Noir Radian Vineyard has a semi-opaque ruby hue as well as a terrific nose of mulled black cherries, scorched earth, toasted spice, and savory herbs. With tons of salty, mineral nuances on the palate, it is medium to full-bodied, and has perfectly integrated acidity, ripe tannins, and outstanding length. It’s one of my favorites in the lineup from Dragonette in 2021. It will have 15+ years of overall longevity.” —Jeb Dunnuck
