Waypoint is the vision of Alejandro Bulgheroni, an Argentinian-Italian businessman, farmer, and vintner. When Waypoint was created it was a wonderful opportunity to begin sourcing fruit from famous plots. Waypoint enabled the winemaking team to dig into its Rolodex files and find the best fruit from unique places that deserve a little more attention. It all starts with fantastic vineyards and folks who farm them sustainably. There are plenty of important decisions that follow, but ultimately, it's about letting the wines speak for themselves and listening to the historic terroir express itself. Single-vineyard wines need to stand on their own merit. Waypoint harnesses that belief and lets the vineyard and corresponding wine do all the talking.

TASTING NOTES:

"The 2018 Cabernet Sauvignon Lowrey Vineyard Homestead comes from the New Frontier umbrella (owned by Alejandro Bulgheroni) and is a 100% Cabernet Sauvignon that saw 20 months in 78% new French oak. This rich, satisfying Cabernet reveals a dense purple color, impressive blackcurrant, and cassis fruits, notes of chocolate, tobacco, and earth, medium to full-bodied richness, and a great sense of minerality on the finish. Enjoy bottles over the coming 10-15 years." – Jeb Dunnuck
