

The Dalmore 14-Year Highland Single Malt Scotch Whisky

APPELLATION:

Highlands

COUNTRY:

Scotland

TASTING NOTES:

If you are talking about luxury Scotch, then the Dalmore 14 year old has to be in the conversation. The sun-drenched, intense sweetness of the Pedro Ximénez sherry wine adds delicious new layers of flavor and perfectly complements The Dalmore's house style. It showcases delicious notes of citrus and rich caramel and is harmoniously balanced.

DESCRIPTION:

Founded in 1839 by Alexander Matheson. The Dalmore distillery sits on the shore of the Cromart Firth in the North East Highlands. The new 14 Year Old joins The Dalmore Principal Collection, exclusively in the USA. Master Whisky Maker Gregg Glass led the development of the latest release from The Dalmore, the first expression to be finished in hand-selected, rare Pedro Ximénez Sherry casks from the House of Gonzalez Byass.

Bneromach 21yr Single Malt Scotch Whisky

APPELLATION:

Forres

COUNTRY:

Scotland

TASTING NOTES:

Wow, what a beautiful experience. The Benromach 21 year old Speyside shows off a beautiful amber color, with bright clear highlights. The aromas are inviting to say the least. Layers of ginger, vanilla and warm spice. Full flavored on the palate with a slight sweetness from the use of the Sherry barrels. A great finish with a touch of smokiness that Speyside is famous for .

MASTER DISTILLER:

Keith Cruicks

MASHBILL:

Our Scottish barley is grown locally and malted with a little peat smoke to our exact specifications. We employ traditional use of both brewer's and distiller's yeast to make our single malt whisky.
