

Found North 18 Yr Old Cask Strength Whisky Batch #7

ORIGIN:

Canada

BLENDERS:

Nicholas & Zach Taylor

AGING:

18 Years

ALCOHOL:

131.8 Proof | 65.9% ABV

MASH BILL:

83% Corn, 16% Rye, 1% Malted Barley

ULTIMATE COCKTAIL: Neat or on the rocks

The term neat refers to the cocktail being served directly into a glass (such as a 9oz tumbler). It is very similar to a shot, but the glass makes a huge difference in the sipping experience.

Neat cocktails are usually 2oz servings and not chilled.

DESCRIPTION:

When brothers Nick & Zach Taylor created the Found North Brand, their mission was to make profound Canadian Whiskies. Found North blends whiskies that bring together the heritage of Canadian distilling with the creativity of the modern age. Blending defines Canadian Whisky. As a blender, Nick has access to a diverse range of old, well-made whiskies from which he further matures and blends the whisky that will be ready to enjoy now.

TASTING NOTES:

Color: Caramel color with a light ruby hue

Aromas: Brown sugar, almost Crème brûlée with a hint of graham cracker sweetness

Palate: Full and flavorful, displays steady warmth, sweet spice, and vanilla

Finish: Long finish, well balanced with flavors of mashed core fruits and spice

Proof and Wood 'Good Day' 21-Year-Old Canadian Whiskey

ORIGIN:

Canada

BLENDER:

Dave Schmier

AGING:

21 Years

ALCOHOL:

104 Proof | 52% ABV

MASH BILL:

97% Corn, 2.7% Rye, 0.3% Malt

ULTIMATE COCKTAIL: Canadian Maple Old Fashioned

2oz Proof and Wood Good Day 21 yr Old
2 dashes of Angostura bitters
2 tsp maple syrup
1-2 Luxardo Cherries
1 slice of orange peel

Steps: Add ice to a tumbler glass along with the whiskey, maple syrup, bitters, and maraschino cherries. Using a vegetable peeler or a sharp knife peel off a strip of orange rind. Twist and squeeze the orange rind over the cocktail to express and release the orange oils. Stir and serve.

DESCRIPTION:

This blended Canadian Whiskey consists of corn, rye, and malt whiskey that was distilled in 2000 or before and entered into the barrel in 2000. This whiskey was carefully aged for 21 years before being finished in Kentucky barrels that previously contained American rye whiskey.

TASTING NOTES:

Color: Medium-deep yellow to gold, almost amber

Aromas: Brown sugar with rye-like spice

Palate: Very flavorful, light caramel, with hints of brown sugar and vanilla

Finish: Long finish with layers of dried fruits and spice
